

I have deep concerns about the negative effect that BPL will have on Ham Radio frequencies. I do not trust any self serving claim made by power companies or telcos. I request that the FCC NOT bend to the commercial interest of these large companies and make a fair independent study of the possible problems with BPL interference. I would accept a very small tolerable level of interference at most. Losing most of Amateur Radio due to widespread interference would be a tragedy.